German Prisoners At Hearne Camp Cause U. S. Flag to Be Removed From Officers Club While Playing Music For Entertainment On July 4th

German prisoners of war at Hearne caused the American flag to be removed from the entertainment hall at the officers club there on July 4, 1944, it was learned Monday by The Herald.

The Germans, all members of an orchestra, invited to play at an entertainment at the club, refused to serve until the American flag had been removed.

News of the incident was first heard Sunday night in a broadcast by Walter Winchell in New York, noted radio commentator for the Juergens Journal, but did not say the flag had been removed on request of the Germans, but did state that the German musicians refused to play because the American flag was on display. The Herald undertook an investigation Monday and can state on good and sufficient authority that the American Officers did remove, or caused to be removed the flag of the United States from the hall or place of entertainment in the German prison camp at Hearne.

The Herald is not in possession of Hearne are responsible for the investigation which followed the incident. The War Department, it was said Monday had acted quickly when the matter was reported.

The Herald is not in possession of any further details. Two former veterans of World War I volunteered the information, when asked by The Herald, that the flag was removed, "It's pretty damn bad," said one of them. "We don't know how far the investigation has gone, but the flag was removed," said the other veteran. Another story going the rounds is that told by an Agricultural agent for a nearby county who said that the German prisoners when taken out to the farms to work, are followed by cold drink and ice cream carts and fruit vendors. The story relates that the Germans are often seen to take a luscious apple, bite a piece out of it and fling it away across the field; then a cream cone to throw upon the ground, or candy or any of the confections the soft heads are giving to the Nazi while American children need food.

Wednesday of last week a story was heard at McCloskey hospital from a soldier who has been there 11 months with serious wounds. It seems a German, critically wounded, was near death and was brought to the hospital. He was cared for and nursed back to health. Assigned to the German was an American nurse who true to her profession, performed her duties faithfully and well. On a day when the German was to be discharged and sent to a prison camp, the nurse, feeling human, offered her hand in good bye to the German she had nursed back from the grave and was promptly rewarded for her care by the German who spat on her hand.

Most of the current germ carriers who are "anxious to get the boys back home and the war to end quickly," should be led up the alley and slugged or forced to make a hip pocket play at General Patton.

WARSAW FALLS TO THE RUSSIAN ARMY

Two developments Wednesday indicate an early surrender of Germany and the end of war in Europe.

The British House of Commons will remain in session until September 26th and are convening until that date in expectation of the final collapse of the Germans.

Anthony Eden, the British Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons Wednesday that peace will not be made with Germany within the next seven weeks even if the Germans surrender.

The Turkish Prime Minister announced that both diplomatic and economic relations with Germany will be broken at midnight Wednesday central war time. This means that at midnight Wednesday the Germans will have lost their last foothold in the near east.

General Mannerheim has taken over the Finnish government.

Indications were that Finland has reached the end and that peace with Russia will come soon. Fast developing events on the war fronts may have forced upon the Finns the realization that the war has been lost and that Germany too has fallen.

A noon broadcast said that the Russian army had entered Warsaw, the capital of Poland. There was no confirmation from Moscow.

Winston Churchill in a speech to the House of Commons said the invasion of France was the fulfillment of a promise made to Joseph Stalin at the conference at Teheran. He said that 4735 people in England have been killed by the German robot bombs and 14,000 have been injured.

Mr. Churchill in his speech to the House of Commons said that victory might come quicker than expected.

The Allied advance in Normandy was still unchecked. Deep spearheads have been driven into the German lines.

Based upon reports at noon and through the afternoon, the end of the war in Europe is near.

ALLIES SCORE 25 MILE ADVANCE IN FRANCE

The Red Army advancing rapidly off the besieged city of Warsaw had crossed the East Prussian border, marking the first time since 1914 that Russian armies had fought on German soil.

Late Wednesday the Reds were in 8 miles of the East Prussian border. A noon broadcast said the Russians had crossed into German territory.

The war fronts were anything but hopeful for the Germans who may now be negotiating a surrender. The American people were duped to some degree in the Italian victory. Actually there was no unconditional surrender. The Italians haggled with the Allies over details and now have escaped altogether all punishment for their crimes.

Will Germany be permitted to do the same? Certainly Germany is fighting a hopeless war. Dr. Goebbles came out today with another story about a new secret weapon that will put the Germans on the offensive by September. Actually the war may end in September and even now the details may be under consideration. The only hope for the people who want the Germans punished is that the Russians get to Berlin and take over.

The Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs has just died from a heart attack.

The Turkish Ambassador to Japan has left that country for his own.

Secretary of War Stimson said that all the seven German divisions in Normandy have been wiped out in most part. Nearly 100 thousand Nazi prisoners have been captured.

The Allies had advanced 25 miles in France. There was considerable unrest in Hungary but none in Washington.

Sgt. Kenneth Weems Writes From Normandy About Post War City

Here is a letter just received from Sgt. Kenneth Weems now fighting in Normandy in France about The Herald's prize offer for the best suggestions on what to do to improve the city.

Sgt. Weems makes no suggestion on what to do here in the way of improvements but certainly does indicate what the boys are thinking about most at this time in the war zones—home, as they left it, and harder work here to give them the weapons they must have and the food they need. The letter:

"Dear Mr. White: "After watching the papers and the mail for several weeks here where we duck and dodge shells, trying in the best way we know how to preserve mankind, and help our fellow soldiers here on the front, we notice a story about prizes in a contest for the individual on the subject of the best improvements for the city. I have spent two years in the E. T. O. and I still visualize the old home town as the same and changes would make us strangers.

"The two great improvements that we need most here are: 1. To leave the city as it is. 2. Work that much harder to see that the boys fighting, by your kindness, you work on the farms, in the homes and in the cities to keep the supplies rolling, for through these, we the soldiers of liberation and for the destruction of the evil forces, shall put down the enemy and all of us can lead a happy, normal life again."

NEIGHBOR KILLS WOMAN HE SOUGHT TO PROTECT

Mrs. Jack Felton, the former Miss Billie Worley of Rockdale, was wounded fatally about midnight Tuesday at her home three miles south of Sweeney by a charge from a shotgun fired by B. Durdin, a neighbor who was attempting to drive off a midnight attacker.

It was reported that Mrs. Durdin and her daughter were in their front room writing letters when they heard Mrs. Felton, whose home was about 200 yards away, screaming. They awakened Mr. Durdin who ran outside with his shotgun. In the darkness he saw a figure outside the house some 125 feet distance, and fired the full charge striking Mrs. Felton in the chest.

She cried, "Oh, you have shot me!" As Durdin ran forward he stated he saw the figure of a man running, stooping over, and snapped his then empty gun at the retreating figure. Mrs. Felton died within a few minutes.

The suspected attacker had cut the window screen and gained entrance into the house. It was reported that some person, at intervals over the past several months, had attempted to get into several of the homes in that area.

Bloodhounds were called in from Clements state prison farm but were unable to do any good. An intense manhunt is being staged in the area.

Funeral services for Mrs. Felton, 31, were held at the Baptist church in Rockdale, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. H. E. Crone officiating, assisted by the Rev. James W. Askew. Burial was to be in the IOOF cemetery.

Worley and was born and reared on the Worley ranch near the San Gabriel community, a few miles northwest of Rockdale. BULGARIA REPORTED PLEADING WITH REDS

The collapse of German arms in the Balkans was adding weight to the already overburdened and bomb shocked, Adolf Hitler.

A noon broadcast said that Bulgaria was negotiating with the Allies to get out of the war. As an ally of the Germans Bulgaria has twice fought the United States and Britain and Russia in 25 years.

At the same time heavily censored reports issued from Turkey said that Ankara was moving rapidly to a break with Germany. This would eventually lead to war and cut off the German espionage system in the near east. One report said that the government of Bulgaria was pleading with the Russians to help her out of the dilemma, that the Bulgarians had asked Germany to withdraw troops from her soil. Not more than 2 German divisions were said disposed in Bulgaria.

As this new crisis developed for Hitler the Red Army was within a few miles of Warsaw. Premier Stalin broadcast a message to his army stating that they would soon be in Berlin.

It was revealed that the purge in Germany had wiped out nearly all the German generals who thought they had destroyed Hitler in the recent bomb attack on his life. Information through Allied sources said the German General staff has long since concluded the struggle is hopeless and that Hitler's fanaticism was heading the German nation to total destruction.

The American army, reported to be led by General George Patton was in the outskirts of Coutances. Two Nazi divisions were cut to pieces in this thrust through the German lines.

A great artillery battle was begun in Italy for the capture of Pisa.

The fall of Brest Litovsk 115 miles east of Warsaw was announced by Moscow. This was the first big Russian city to fall to the Germans in 1941. Here the Germans dictated peace to the Russians in the first world war.

FIGHTING KILOWATTS

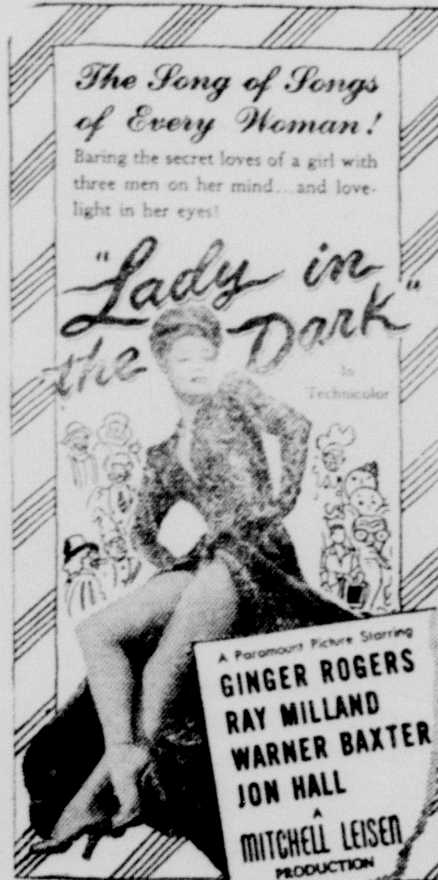

With eyes constantly on his "War Map" of electric power facilities... with direct lines of communication with TP&L's generating and switching stations... the Dispatcher acts as the "directing general" in marshaling your fighting kilowatts. Always before him is his massive diagram indicating the transmission lines, switching stations, substations and power plants of the TP&L system. His job is to see that Electric Power flows constantly over the Company's vast system of Transmission and Distribution lines... AND... to direct "reinforcements" wherever and whenever needed. As he receives orders for "more power here" or "less power there," he transmits these orders to the particular sources of power, and presto!... the kilowatts needed are there!

Every second of the day and night the Dispatcher is on the job... alert, watchful, knowing exactly what to do in any situation... keeping TP&L Transmission Line Electric Power on the job in War Plants, in Military Camps, on farms, in business, and in your home. Whether the need is for a fraction of a kilowatt to fry an egg, or for thousands of kilowatts to rush through an emergency order for military materiel, the Dispatcher sees to it that the needed power is there... on the job, day and night.

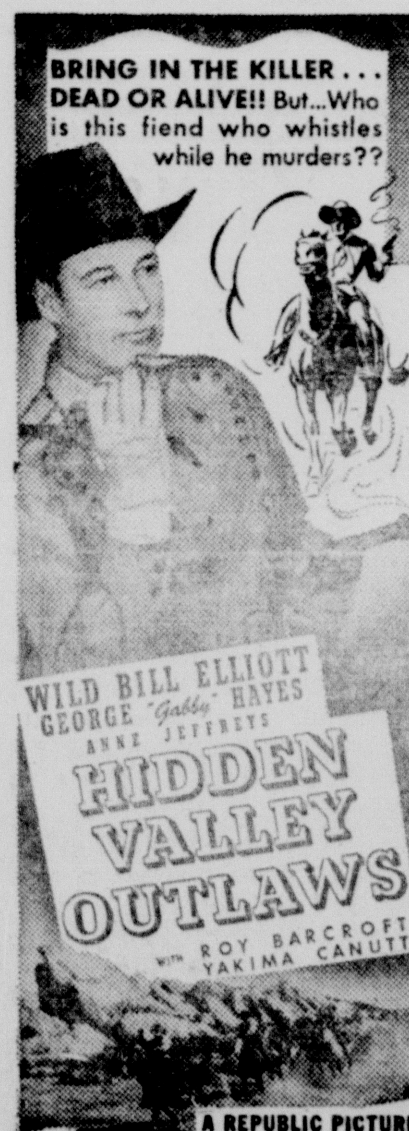

When you buy War Bonds you are getting ready for a better tomorrow. Invest in War Bonds regularly... they'll help protect the America we love today... they'll help win the war and preserve our cherished American Way of Life.

BRITISH GAIN 4 MILES AN HOUR IN NORMANDY

Gen. Ivan Cheriakhovsky, 37 year old Jewish tank expert, sent his Third White Russian army crashing 11 miles into East Prussia yesterday in a powerful offensive which overran 300 towns and villages in 15 mile gains on a 68 mile front. The town of Giby, 11 miles inside the Suwalki triangle, which Germany annexed to East Prussia in 1939 after the conquest of Poland, was among the many localities captured by the troops pounding westward under Cheriakhovsky, one of Russia's youngest military leaders.

A new British offensive against the center of the Nazi defense line in Normandy near Caumont crashed forward more than four and one half miles yesterday and at night fall still was gaining up to a mile an hour in some places, matching a swift American armored drive to the west which advanced on a 20 mile front.

The stupendous Russian drives on the east front maintained their power, with the Red army advance on Kaunas and East Prussian frontier gaining 15 miles on a 68 mile front.

These significant military successes combined with reports of a flight of German diplomats from Ankara and indications of an imminent break between Turkey and Germany, posed the possibility of yet more serious crises for the creaking German Reich.

Last night the battlefront in central Normandy was aflame as the Allies pressed for a major breakthrough. One British force rammed beyond St. Jean-Breuc des Essartiers, southwest of Caumont. To the west another had equal progress, taking Les Loges.

Behind American armored spearheads driving to break out of the Cherbourg peninsula came other great forces of men and tanks which mopped up by-passed pockets of resistance. In six days the American drive had advanced as much as 25 miles.

Moscow announced 300 towns had been captured in the drive toward German East Prussia west of the Niemen river in the Kaunas-Alyus sector of Lithuania. Although the Soviet war bulletin ignored the Warsaw front, where Red army troops were within sight of the Polish capital, the German high command said the Russians had crossed the Vistula river.

In Italy the Germans sought to hold embattled Florence with five battered divisions, but the British 8th army was in sight of the historic city and tightening its ring about it.

More than 1,000 heavy bombers supported the Normandy fighting despite miserable weather, and 500 Mediterranean-based heavy weights blasted the Messerschmitt aircraft factories at Budapest and oil fields and railyards in Yugoslavia.

AMERICANS IN 600 MILES PHILIPPINES

Axis lines were being rolled back Tuesday on all fronts and the Americans have thrust to within 600 miles of the Philippine Islands from where they were driven in 1942 with the surrender of Corregidor.

The Allies were advancing on all fronts in France, and have crossed the Saline river at 2 points. The Allies have captured 6300 Germans during the past week. Prisoners say they have been without food for days and their officers desert them when the going gets tough.

The Red army was advancing on Warsaw from three points. A Berlin broadcast said the Red Army had crossed the Vistula river. The Germans are destroying Warsaw, said a statement from Moscow.

From General MacArthur came announcement that the Americans are now within 600 miles of the Philippines with new landings on the Marianas. The fighting succeeding on Guam was rapidly sweeping the Japs off.

The Germans were fighting desperately for Florence but the Allies were advancing.

Have a "Coke" = What's the hurry?

...a way to be carefree in the Caribbean

Between spells of duty at our southern outposts, the American soldier knows how to relax. Have a "Coke", says a thirsty Yank, and it's like a friendly invitation to fun or a chin-fest...the same as when you serve Coca-Cola in your home. From the Caribbean to the Arctic, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the high-sign of friendliness many places overseas.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 6.

The Golden Text is: "We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God" (I Cor. 2:12.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh" (Galatians 5:16.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If our hopes and affections are spiritual, they come from above, not from beneath, and they bear as of old the fruits of the Spirit" (page 451.)

I Thank You!

It is a great pleasure to thank sincerely, both individually and collectively, the twenty-five hundred fourteen women and men who honored me with their votes for District Judge in the recent primary. I only wish it were practicable to see you each in person for the purpose.

And I trust it will not be deemed an unseemly display of pride for me to express exceptional gratitude to the home people of Cameron for the splendid endorsement of me by their overwhelming vote of 825 to 403.

For the innumerable other courtesies extended to me and mine during the campaign, both by those who supported me and many who found themselves impelled to vote for my opponent, I am also profoundly grateful. Bowing to the will of the majority with malice toward none and goodwill toward all, I cheerfully accept the results, forgetting the past and facing the future.

Yours for united country,
ROY BASKIN.

To The People of Milam County:

I appreciate the vote I received in Milam County. My purpose was to help secure a new primary election law; a correction of the present school law, so that a good primary school would be available in every community; and that our old people would have less worry and harassment.

I hope I planted seed that will accomplish these needed things. Our Representatives at Washington and Austin are the only hope we have, so do not be afraid to request them to properly represent the needs of our people. We make a lot of noise about who our Governor and President will be; but, the guy that affects us is the fellow in the legislature at Austin; and in Congress at Washington. Write them and tell them what we need.

Sincerely,
R. S. BOWERS,

A new "Champion" in invasion warfare STUDEBAKER WEASEL

Scene on the sands of Normandy beach—June, 1944.

BUILT BY STUDEBAKER... POWERED BY STUDEBAKER CHAMPION ENGINE

YOU'll hear a lot more about this agile new Allied personnel and cargo carrier as our invasion armies roll deeper into Europe... Born of war's needs—brainchild of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Department and Studebaker engineers—the Weasel is being manufactured by Studebaker under contract with the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces... It's Studebaker-built—and it's powered by the famous Studebaker Champion engine... Officially designated the M-29, it was soon nicknamed the Weasel. And like a weasel it is—in stealth and swiftness—in sure-footed movement on practically any kind of terrain.

Constable Robbins Details Capture of Two Robbers Here

"On July 27, 1944, at 1:15 a. m. I was called by Constable Lee of Rockdale to look out for a stolen car, No. A86-771. I located the car in Milano and found that Johnny Haddox had lost a Ford pickup, and that Jim Stewart's station had been robbed.

"I called Sheriff Carl Black. We made an investigation and found no clue except finger prints. At about 11 a. m. a telephone call was made from Cameron to Milano that opened the trail. Justice of Peace W. E. Thomas, reported to Sheriff Black. At 6 p. m. another call from Cameron which made the trail hot. At 5 o'clock I located the Haddox pickup one block north of the court house at Cameron. I went to the sheriff and asked him if he had locked the pickup and he said he had not. Mr. Black and I saw the boys near the hotel. I remained in the hotel while they made a search. About 11 p. m. the boys entered the hotel and we closed in and arrested them and placed them in jail. We came back to their room at the hotel and found two pistols, some money and tools they used in their robberies and hold up.

There is an old and true saying: "Peace has victories no less renowned than War."

Right now we are not thinking so much of the Peace to come after this War as we are concerned over first winning the Victory.

proposing an Amendment to Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by changing said Section 9 so as to provide that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the county tax levies authorized in said section by changing the rates provided for any of the purposes authorized in said section by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of such taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year; providing that before such Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in such levies that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county as a general or special election and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; providing that if and when such re-allocations and changes in such county tax levies have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of any county as herein provided, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which same shall be approved, unless the same shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court at a general or special election for that purpose; providing that this section shall not be construed as a limitation on powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or sections of this Constitution; fixing the time for the election for the adoption or rejection of said proposed Constitutional Amendment; making certain provisions for said election and ballots thereof and the method thereof; directing the issuance of proclamation therefor; prescribing certain duties of the Governor of the State of Texas; and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of said election.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 9. The State tax on property, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed thirty-five (35) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation; and no county, city or town shall levy more than twenty-five (25) cents for city or county purposes, and not exceeding fifteen (15) cents for roads and bridges, and not exceeding fifteen (15) cents to pay jurors, on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the Amendment September 25, 1883; and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five (25) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, in any one year, and except as is in this Constitution otherwise provided; provided, however, that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the foregoing county taxes by changing the rates provided for any of the foregoing purpose by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of said foregoing county taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, in any one year; provided further, that before the said Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in said county taxes that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county at a general or special election, and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; and, provided further, that if and when such re-allocations and changes in the aforesaid county taxes have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of any county, as herein provided, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which the same shall be approved, unless the same again shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court at a general or special election for that purpose; and the Legislature may also authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected for the further maintenance of the public roads; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed fifteen (15) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such county. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of the public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws. This section shall not be construed as a limitation of powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or sections of this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a general election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the seventh day of November, 1944, at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

"For the Amendment to Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the county tax levies authorized in said section by changing the rates provided for any of the purposes authorized in said section by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of such taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year; providing that before such Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in such levies that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county at a general or special election and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; providing that if and when such re-allocations and changes in such county tax levies have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of any county as herein provided, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of the election at which same shall be approved, unless the same shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court at a general or special election for that purpose; and providing that this Amendment shall not be construed as a limitation on powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or sections of the Constitution."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

"Against the Amendment to Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide that the Commissioners Court in any county may re-allocate the county tax levies authorized in said section by changing the rates provided for any of the purpose authorized in said section by either increasing or decreasing the same, but in no event shall the total of such taxes exceed eighty (80) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year; providing that before such Commissioners Court may make such re-allocations and changes in such levies that the same shall be submitted to the qualified property tax paying voters of such county at a general or special election and shall be approved by a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters, voting in such election; provided that if and when such re-allocations and changes in such county tax levies have been approved by the qualified property tax paying voters of any county as herein provided, such re-allocations and changes shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) years from the date of election at which same shall be approved, unless the same shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified property tax paying voters of such county, voting on the proposition, after submission by the Commissioners Court or special election for that purpose; and providing that this Amendment shall not be construed as a limitation on powers delegated to counties, cities or towns by any other section or sections of the Constitution."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election. 17-4tc

GERMANS STAGGERING UNDER MASSIVE BLOWS

Germany's battered armies suffered their worst series of defeats Thursday since they started out to conquer the world more than five years ago.

Russian forces, pounding grimly toward Berlin, captured six major bases of the Nazi shattered defenses in the East—Lwow, Bialystok, Dargavpils (Dvinsk), Siaulai, Stanislawow and Rezekne—and stormed across the Vistula river near Warsaw.

American tanks ripped German lines in Normandy wide open from St. Lo to the sea, throwing the enemy into chaotic retreat in the greatest Allied blow since D-Day. Yank field commanders declared all organized resistance was crumbling before the onslaught—that the dam was bursting.

Doughboys moved up in an almost solid line behind the slashing tanks along a front of almost 40 miles, gathering Nazi prisoners by the hundreds. American fighter bombers struck ceaselessly, giving enemy commanders no chance to rally their fleeing forces. The German strongholds of Lessay and Periers already were in American hands and Coutances was just ahead of the flood.

Marshal Stalin announced the Red army's major victories in five orders of the day, while the German radio conceded that Soviet troops had crossed the Vistula, last important barrier east of the German border, 140 miles away. The fall of two other enemy strongholds, Brest-Litovsk and Kaunas, appeared near.

Lwow, third largest city of Poland and one of Europe's greatest rail junction, fell after two days of fighting through its streets. Other Soviet troops already were 60 miles west of the city. The Second Russian Baltic army which captured Siaulai, Dargavpils and Rezekne in Latvia is driving toward Riga in an effort to strand some 300,000 Germans in Estonia and Latvia at the extreme northern end of the front.

Capture of the strategic rail junction of Siaulai yesterday reduced the escape corridor left to these Nazi troops to 73 miles—say four days march for the present Russian army—and virtually deprived them of rail communication with East Prussia. Their situation was potentially grave.

Two Men Held Here For Robberies in Milano and Rockdale

Omar Pope, 19, and Earl Whitaker, 21, are in the Milam county jail facing charges of robbery at Rockdale and Milano.

In addition the men held up a night marshal at San Marcos and took a 45 Colt pistol from the officer on Tuesday night. Since that time they had been at large and according to local officers had committed these robberies.

Carl C. Black, sheriff-elect of Milam county, had performed a neat job of detective work. Acting upon information and experience in such cases, he arrested the men in a local hotel.

Mr. Black and District Attorney Ed Gunn were perfecting the case early Saturday.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Black telephoned The Herald shortly before noon after he had concluded the investigation, that the men had held up a night marshal at San Marcos and had taken the 45 calibre pistol from him. The gun will be restored to the officer.

Thursday night the Cook Grocery, Peoples Hardware store and the C. A. Nance service station in Rockdale were robbed. In addition the car of a minister, Rev. Brown, holding a revival in Rockdale was stolen. The car was later found at Milano and recovered. At Milano a pick up car belonging H. H. Maddox was stolen and this car has been recovered.

The men came to Cameron and registered at a local hotel and were placed under arrest. They were taken at 12 a. m. Saturday.

The men had two pistols, one a 45 Colt and the other a 380 automatic.

Mr. Black said the men claimed to have been in the Merchant Marine and had recently been in Houston where they had come in from the sea on an oil tanker.

Pope was wearing the uniform of the merchant marine while Whitaker was dressed in civilian clothes.

Mr. Black in clearing up this robbery within 24 hours had done a good job and was being congratulated by the people and especially the business men who lost heavily in the robberies.

Jim James of Curry visited in Cameron Tuesday.

PLANNING BOARD HERE HOLD FIRST MEETING

Cameron's Planning Board held the first meeting Friday night since its appointment by Mayor Chas. C. Smith two months ago.

H. M. Hefley, Chairman, convened the Board in the Directors room of the First National Bank. Board members present, besides the Chairman were: L. F. Gohmert, Eber Flinn, H. H. Stedman, Albert Matula, Dr. Clifford Swith and J. B. White.

The discussions were preliminary and informal. At the conclusion of the meeting it was voted to ask each member of the Board to write a tentative list of improvements he thinks the city should make. These suggestions will be pooled at a meeting to be held on next Friday night and discussed. It is believed that out of this number of suggestions decisions can be made and a working plan formed.

Dr. Clifford Swift was named a committee of one to investigate an engineering service offered by the University of Texas to ascertain what may be expected in the way of such free co-operation. The Board took no action involving any expense and hopes to be able to present facts

Mayor Smith's suggestion for converting the old grammar school building into a City Administration building was discussed.

A unanimous agreement on the importance of issuing bonds at present low interest rates was expressed. Cameron with no bonded debt to speak of, stands in a favorable position. Bonds issued under present

The Board was careful to indicate that its mission is one of recommending and has no authority. All official action must be taken by the city government.

FOOD FIGHTS for FREEDOM

On the home front, food fights for freedom. Here is the score in '43 . . . farmers raised nearly one-third more food than before the war; three and a half million men, women and young people helped harvest vital food crops on the farm; civilians planted 20 million victory gardens, harvested 8 million tons of food; 650,000 worked in processing food plants.

Now, in this year of decision, the need for food is greater than ever. All honor to America's loyal victory gardeners who are responding to the call to "Grow More in '44," raising 22 million bigger and better victory gardens in Uncle Sam's drive to make our food an effective weapon.
